

Lobster Dinner

On Thursday, June 27th, there will be a lobster dinner held in conjunction with the Atlantic Theological Conference at St. Peter's Cathedral Hall. The menu will include a one pound lobster in the shell, (properly cracked), home-made potato salad on a bed of lettuce, a container of cole slaw, roll with butter, slice of cucumber, cherry tomatoes, and lemon wedge. Dessert will be fruit pizza. The sit down dinner begins at 5:30 pm. Dinner for those seated in the hall will include tea and coffee, lobster utensils, hand wipes, and bibs. Chilled white wine will be available for purchase by the glass.

This is a fund-raising event for St. Peter's Cathedral, open to parishioners and the general public, but we ask those in attendance at the Theological Conference, to PLEASE NOTE – Thirty tickets have been set aside for those attending the conference to purchase.

The dinner price is $25, and those attending the conference may purchase tickets when you arrive and register for the Conference. See Mrs. Chisholm at the Registration desk. (Or to reserve in advance, email Mrs. Chisholm at this email address: office@stpeter.org).

Only 80 tickets will be sold, and 30 of these are reserved for the conference attendees.
