R. Who for our sakes hung upon the tree. Alleluia

Collect

Introit standing
I am risen and am still with thee, alleluia: thou hast laid thine hand upon me, alleluia; Thou knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me, alleluia, alleluia. O Lord, thou hast searched me out and known me: thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine uprising. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost: As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be: world without end. Amen. I am risen and am still with thee, alleluia: thou hast laid thine hand upon me, alleluia; Thy knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me, alleluia, alleluia.

Porridge for Parkinson's
The PEI Chapter Parkinson Canada is hosting the annual P4P (Porridge for Parkinson’s) event on Saturday, April 27 from 8:30am - 11:00am. It is being held at the Jack Blanchard Centre on Pond Street in Charlottetown. There will be table service of heart healthy and warming porridge with selection of toppings, toast, muffins, tea, coffee and juice. There will be bundles of tulips for purchase, the 50/50 draw, door prizes, table side trivia and live entertainment. Make it a family affair with the Kid Zone to entertain the younger crowd. Exciting addition this year is a silent auction of professionally shot and framed photos by photographer Wayne W. Crouse. Admission is by donation. All proceeds stay in PEI and go to providing services for Islanders living with Parkinson’s Disease.

The Prince Edward Island Association for Community Living (PEIACL) has received funding from the Interministerial Women’s Secretariat to host a series of workshops called “For Me” Fridays: Caring for the Caregiver. The workshops are designed to help empower parents/caregivers in their personal, social, recreation, health, and wellness lives. It is open to caregivers of people living with intellectual disabilities, are on the autism spectrum, and anyone else who is taking care of someone else on a full-time basis. Over the course of four three-hour sessions, attendees will learn how to reduce stress in their lives while developing leadership and advocacy awareness skills. This, in turn, will increase their overall well-being while positively influencing their families and the community around them.

Workshops will take place in Charlottetown over the month of May and will include: Communicating Effectively with Health Care Professionals; Signs of Stress and How to Reduce It; Quick Cooks: Easy, Healthy Meal Preparation; and Community Connections. Workshops are free to attend, although registration is necessary. Funding to cover the cost of a babysitter in order to attend the workshops may be available. For more information, please contact Grace at the Prince Edward Island Association for Community Living at inclusionpei@gmail.com or 902-394-7555.
