Father David

ALMIGHTY God and merciful Father, who wouldst have the kingdoms of the world become the kingdom of thy Son Jesus Christ: Bestow thy blessing, we beseech thee, upon all who labour for peace and righteousness in Ukraine and in all the world; that the day may be hastened when war shall be no more, and thy will only shall govern the nations upon earth; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, who art afflicted in the afflictions of thy people: Regard with thy tender compassion those in anxiety and distress; bear their sorrows and their cares; supply all their manifold needs; and help both them and us to put our whole trust and confidence in thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

“We acknowledge that the land on which we gather is the traditional and unceded territory of the Micmac First Nation.”

Sequence Hymn
There is one Way

1. There is one Way, and only one,
Out of our gloom, and sin, and care,
To that far land where shines no sun
Because the Face of God is there.
2. There is one Truth, the Truth of God,
That Christ came down from heav'n to show,
One life that His redeeming Blood
Has won for all His saints below.
3. The lore from Philip once conceal'd
We know its fulness now in Christ;
In Him the Father is reveal'd,
And all our longing is sufficed.
4. And still unwavering faith holds sure
The words that James wrote sternly down;
Except we labour and endure,
We cannot win the heavenly crown.
5. O way Divine, through gloom and strife,
Bring us Thy Father's face to see;
O Heavenly Truth, O precious life,
At last, at last, we rest in Thee.

Offertory Hymn
For All Thy Saints in Warfare

For all thy saints in warfare, for all thy saints at rest,
To thee, O blessèd Jesu, all praises be addressed.
Thou, Lord, didst win the battle, that they might conquerors be;
Their crowns of living glory are lit with rays from thee.

All praise for thine apostle, blest guide to Greek and Jew,
And him surnamed thy brother; keep us thy brethren true.
And grant the grace to know thee, the Way, the Truth, the Life;
To wrestle with temptations till victors in the strife. (over)

Apostles, prophets, martyrs, and all the sacred throng,
Who wear the spotless raiment, who raise the ceaseless song;
For these, passed on before us, Saviour, we thee adore,
And, walking in their footsteps, would serve thee more and more.

Then praise we God the Father, and praise we God the Son,
And God the Holy Spirit, eternal Three in One;
Till all the ransomed number fall down before the throne,
And honour, power, and glory ascribe to God alone.

Post Communion Hymn
King of Saints

King of saints, we offer Highest praise to thee,
Who didst free thy servants from captivity;
Sending thine apostles To convey thy grace
Unto every nation And to every race.

Two of thine apostles We remember now,
Whom thou didst so freely With thy grace endow.
Thou unto Saint Philip Hast thyself revealed,
One with God the Father Though in flesh concealed.

O how can we thank thee For the light conferred
By Saint James thy servant, In his faithful word.
Like these two apostles Faithful until death,
May we love and serve thee Till our latest breath.

Make us, dear Redeemer, More and more like thee,
Be the Way to lead us Over life's dark sea;
Be the Truth to light us To our home on high;
Be the Life within us That can never die.

MAY 2nd ATHANASIUS, DOCTOR AND BISHOP (c. 296-298 - 2 May 373), was the twentieth bishop of Alexandria (as Athanasius I). His episcopate lasted 45 years (c. 8 June 328 - 2 May 373) of which over 17 were spent in five exiles ordered by four different Roman emperors.

Conflict with Arius and Arianism as well as successive Roman emperors shaped Athanasius’s career. In 325, at the age of 27, Athanasius began his leading role against the Arians as a deacon and assistant to Bishop Alexander of Alexandria during the First Council of Nicaea. Roman emperor Constantine the Great had convened the council in May-August 325 to address the Arian position that the Son of God, Jesus of Nazareth, is of a distinct substance from the Father. Three years after that council, Athanasius succeeded his mentor as archbishop of Alexandria. In addition to the conflict with the Arians (including powerful and influential Arian churchmen led by Eusebius of Nicomedia), he struggled against the Emperors Constantine, Constantius II, Julian the Apostate and Valens. He was known as “Athanasius Contra Mundum” (Latin for 'Athanasius Against the World').

Nonetheless, within a few years of his death, Gregory of Nazianzus called him the “Pillar of the Church”. His writings were well regarded by all Church fathers who followed, in both the West and the East, who noted their rich devotion to the Word-become-man, great pastoral concern, and profound interest in monasticism. Athanasius is counted as one of the four great Eastern Doctors of the Church.

MAY 4th MONNICA, MATRON (AD 331-387), was the mother of St. Augustine of Hippo. She is remembered and honoured for her outstanding Christian virtues, particularly the suffering caused by her husband’s adultery, and her prayerful life dedicated to the reformation of her son, who wrote extensively of her pious acts and life with her in his Confessions. Popular Christian legends recall Saint Monica weeping every night for her son Augustine until his conversion.
