Rector Emeritus:

The Rev'd Canon Peter W. Harris, B.A., M.S. Litt., D.D.

GOING FORWARD

Dear Friends in Christ:

It is now possible for us to worship and to gather for receptions and meetings, and gatherings such as coffee hour and lemonade on the lawn without capacity limited or other public health restrictions. Please feel welcome to wear a mask, sanitize your hands, and keep a distance at your discretion.

The Sacrament is delivered in one kind at the rail.

The offering plate is available at the door of the Cathedral during the Sung Eucharist and after.

It is my intention to resume administering the common cup at the Eucharist in the Cathedral and All Souls Chapel. I assure you that, to the best of my knowledge based on Science and Experience, that there is no evidence of transfer of any disease through the Common Cup since the restoration of the Common Cup in the Reformation in 1549. Each Sunday and Weekday since then the clergy have continued to drink the remaining wine after the reception of the Sacrament. And the Actuarial Tables of the insurance industry do not suggest an overly unusual number of clerical illness or death because of this. And I have not experienced in my years of ordination since 1983 any illness related to my consumption of the wine after the Communion. This has been the experience of clergy and lay people of the whole Anglican Communion of over 70 million people. The withdrawal was due to an overabundance of caution in 2020. The Covid-19 pandemic has sadly instilled fear of the Common Cup with no reason.

When this restoration of the Common Cup occurs and the cup is offered, and you choose not to receive the wine, I ask that you fold your arms and remain at the rail to hear the words of administration.

You can find food for thought here:

SAINT PETER'S HELPS!

The St Peter's Parish Life Committee ask you to help provide food and fellowship to Charlottetown's marginalized and at-risk population.

How Can you help?

Help to provide a meal to the guests at HARVEST HOUSE every fourth Thursday of the month.

You can help in any of the following ways:

- Contribute to the cost of purchasing food: cheques, cash, or e-transfer are all welcome! Contact Beth Dowbiggin for more details.
- Prepare a hot meal or dessert for 25-30 people. You do not need to sign up for every month; even a once-a-year contribution is a significant help!

If you are interested in supporting this initiative in any way, or would like to know more about what's involved, please contact Beth Dowbiggin at 902-940-0855, or bethdowbiggin_36@hotmail.com

HARVEST HOUSE MINISTRIES is an outreach centre that provides programs aimed at helping marginalized and vulnerable youth and adults with mentorship education and spiritual well-being to help people transition from destructive lifestyles to healthier, more productive lifestyles. They also provide hot meals and shelter during daytime hours for anyone in need.

This is not meant to challenge or replace any other good work you are now supporting.

It is simply another opportunity for grace.

AUGUST 24th BARTHOLOMEW THE APOSTLE was born at Cana of Galilee, and is listed among the Twelve Apostles of Jesus in the three Synoptic Gospels: Matthew [10:1-4], Mark [3: 13-19], and Luke [6:12-16], and also appears as one of the witnesses of the Ascension [Acts 1:4-12, 13].

“On August 26th at 11:00 a.m. The Bell and rebuilt Bell Cote (covering) of Saint Alban's Church in Souris will be dedicated in memory of Canon Robert Tuck. The roof of St Alban's had to be replaced and as a result the bell and its covering had to be taken down. The covering has been rebuilt, the bell and covering have been replaced on the church roof. Any gift toward the cost would be appreciated.”

An Update on The New Music Director

Our new organist and choir director, Clem Carelse, begins in his position with us on September 4th. Instead of renting, Clem and his wife Christine decided to buy a small home in Cornwall, the closing date for which is not until the end of September. As a result, Clem will be here without Christine and their five cats until that time when he will return to Toronto to move their household to Charlottetown. In the meantime, Father Garrett has graciously invited Clem to stay with him at the rectory.

Visions of Light and Darkness,
the art of Russell MacAusland continues until Thursday, August 25th at The Guild Art Gallery on Queen Street.

Today, Sunday August 21st, is Food Bank Sunday. The requested item for August is canned tuna, for September granola bars and for October, the item requested is chunky soups and stews.

Sharon Reesor wishes to express sincere thanks to the many St Peterites who have honoured the memory of Alan. Your expressions of appreciation and respect for him have been a great comfort.

For the Hillsborough Hospital

Please contribute toiletries for use of residents, using the basket under the table at the back of the Cathedral.

Self-guided tour of St Peter's Cathedral and All Souls Chapel

Have you noticed the numbered stickers on the floors of the Cathedral and its Chapel? Our virtual tour of St Peter's Church has been launched and we invite you to take a visit. This brief, self-guided tour will provide you with in-depth information on select artifacts and areas of the church and chapel, as well as its extensive history. It works on all common mobile devices (iPhone, iPad, Android) and can be accessed online or in person via a QR code found in the main entrance. If you do not have the cellular data, you can access the tour in-person by selecting the "download" icon on the tour's homepage. Available in both English and French, this virtual visit allows you to pick points of interest to explore on your own time, at your own pace. If you wish to preview the tour at home, you may do so by keying in the web address as below:

English: <https://www.youraudiotour.com/tours/1659/>

En français: <https://www.youraudiotour.com/tours/1673/>

Please let us know what you think of the tour and how the experience can be improved!
