2023 Church Envelopes

2023 Church Envelopes are on the table at the back of the Church. Please pick up your packet if you have not already done so. Anyone who did not have envelopes for the year 2022 and would like to have a box of Envelopes for 2023, please contact the Church Office.

Annual General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting of the Parish will take place today, following the 10:30 a.m. service. Soup and rolls will be served by the Binney Group. Any free-will offering will be appreciated.

“We acknowledge that the land on which we gather is the traditional and unceded territory of the Abegweit Mi’kmaq First Nation.”

We welcome all visitors with us today and invite you to join us for Coffee & Tea in the Cathedral Hall following the 10:30 a.m. service.

Dear Parishioners:

A reminder to all that we ‘rebooted’ our Sunday School program at St Peter’s in December, with active junior and senior classes. With the beginning of a new year, what a perfect time to have your children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and neighbors join us for a 10:30am assembly and classes winding up around 11:15 am.

The Nursery

At the 10:30 a.m. Eucharist, a qualified child care provider will be delighted to welcome any younger children in the nursery downstairs beside the Sunday School room.

Thanks for a great Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper

Your Parish Life Committee would like to thank all the people who helped run our first Shrove Tuesday pancake Supper since the pandemic. It was a great success - lots of fun in the kitchen and a great meal for one and all. Thank you for helping out and for your support. Profits from the supper will go towards the costs of our monthly contribution of a warm meal to Harvest House for those in our community who live with food insecurity, and to the St Peter’s Syrian Relief Fund. Thanks again from your Parish Life Committee.

Hillsborough Hospital

Please contribute toiletries for use of residents at Hillsborough Hospital using the basket under the table at the back of the Cathedral.

Next Sunday, March 19th is Mothering Sunday when flowers and simnel cakes are blessed, recalling the Epistle for the Sunday which speaks of Motherhood.

COMMON PRAYER : Volume Two Septuagesima to Easter Even, commentaries on the daily readings in the Book of Common Prayer are available for sale for $20.00 in the Parish office. Copies are also available at coffee after the 10.30 Sung Eucharist.

Introit standing

Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord, for he shall pluck my feet out of the net: look thou upon me and have mercy upon me, for I am desolate, and in misery. Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul: my God in thee have I trusted, let me not be confounded. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord, for he shall pluck my feet out of the net: look thou upon me and have mercy upon me, for I am desolate, and in misery. Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul: my God, in thee have I trusted, let me not be confounded.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be alway praising thee.

Holy Communion

Every Christian who is baptized and a communicant in his or own congregation is welcome to receive Holy Communion. The Sacrament is offered in both kinds, bread and wine. If you choose not to receive the wine, please fold your arms and remain at the rail to bear the words of administration. If the rail is full to the middle, please go as far to the left as possible before you kneel so that others will not have to walk over your legs.

Communion Hymn 736 Lenten Prose

Motet during ablutions: Hide Not Thou Thy Face - Richard Farrant
Hide not thou thy face from us, O Lord, and cast not off thy servant in thy displeasure; for we confess our sins unto thee and hide not our unrighteousness. For thy mercy's sake, deliver us from all our sins.

Prayer of Thanksgiving                      Prayer Book page 85

∿. Depart in the peace of Christ.                      ℞. Thanks be to God.

GOT QUESTIONS ABOUT LIFE

*ALPHA IS AN OPPORTUNITY TO EXPLORE LIFE AND THE CHRISTIAN FAITH
IN A FRIENDLY OPEN AND INFORMAL ENVIRONMENT.*

IS THERE MORE TO LIFE THAN THIS

WHO IS JESUS

WHY DID JESUS DIE

HOW CAN I HAVE FAITH

from THE CROWN OF THE YEAR

Weekly Paragraphs for the Holy Sacrament. By Austin Farrer
LENT is EVERYTHING that is true of Christ's body is true of us in some manner. He gives us his body that we may become his body. Christ's body died on the cross, he also rose. The resurrection is ours, but the death also is ours. Many men, at the last challenge, have consented to be martyrs, and set their bodies aside. But Christ's passion was no more than the last expression of what he had done all his life. He had set his body aside whenever its demands conflicted with man's need or God's will, and so he had rehearsed his death continually; not morbidly, but with joy and self-forgetfulness. We have many opportunities so to rehearse our death, and how steadily we reject them! Our bed, our chair retains us when we should get up and pray; fleshly delights of act and imagination, some by no means innocent, hold us from following better inspirations. Our own pleasure comes before our neighbour's, vanity before sympathy. How will it be when rehearsals are over, and we have to act our part, to put our bodies finally off, that we may possess God? If Christ offers us up with his own death in this sacrament, it is that we may die a voluntary and daily death, and merit a daily resurrection.

IT REMAINS FOR ME TO SAY

The Memoirs of Archbishop Harold Lee Nutter edited by his son Andrew with a foreword by David Adams Richards
A New Brunswick Anglican Archbishop with generational ties to PEI recorded his memoirs for the Provincial Archives of NB in 1992. He married Islander Edith Carew and for many years in the 50s and 60s the family summered at their cottage on the North River in Charlottetown.

Harold Lee Nutter was born in the small New Brunswick village of Welsford. His mother died of tuberculosis when he was nine. Unlike other boys of his age, interested in hunting and fishing, Harold began studying Greek at the age of twelve. His father, who ran the village grocery store, found his son's unusual interest difficult to explain to fellow villagers. The Archbishop was sounding alarm bells in the later part of his episcopate over the wayward and woke direction of his beloved church. His writings now seem prescient. His son, Andrew, was ordained here in St Peter's Cathedral. The book is now available from St Peter's Cathedral Office at $28.

MARCH 17th ST PATRICK was a fifth-century Christian missionary and bishop in Ireland. Known as the "Apostle of Ireland", he is the primary patron saint of Ireland According to tradition dating back to the early Middle Ages, Patrick served as the first bishop of Armagh and Primate of Ireland, and credits him with bringing Christianity to Ireland, converting a pagan society. According to the autobiography of Patrick, when he was about sixteen, he was captured by Irish pirates from his home in Britain and taken as a slave to Ireland, looking after animals; he lived there for six years before escaping and returning to his family. After becoming a cleric, he returned to northern and western Ireland. In later life, he served as a bishop, but little is known about the places where he worked. His feast day is observed on the 17th of March, the supposed date of his death.
