2023 Church Envelopes

2023 Church Envelopes are on the table at the back of the Church. Please pick up your packet if you have not already done so. Anyone who did not have envelopes for the year 2022 and would like to have a box of Envelopes for 2023, please contact the Church Office.

We welcome all visitors with us today and invite you to join us for Coffee & Tea in the Cathedral Hall following the 10:30 a.m. service.

Dear Parishioners:

A reminder to all that we 'rebooted' our Sunday School program at St Peter's in December, with active junior and senior classes. With the beginning of a new year, what a perfect time to have your children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and neighbors join us for a 10:30am assembly and classes winding up around 11:15 am.

The Nursery

At the 10:30 a.m. Eucharist, a qualified child care provider will be delighted to welcome any younger children in the nursery downstairs beside the Sunday School room.

IT REMAINS FOR ME TO SAY

The Memoirs of Archbishop Harold Lee Nutter edited by his son Andrew with a foreword by David Adams Richards

A New Brunswick Anglican Archbishop with generational ties to PEI recorded his memoirs for the Provincial Archives of NB in 1992. He married Islander Edith Carew and for many years in the 50s and 60s the family summered at their cottage on the North River in Charlottetown.

Harold Lee Nutter was born in the small New Brunswick village of Welsford. His mother died of tuberculosis when he was nine. Unlike other boys of his age, interested in hunting and fishing, Harold began studying Greek at the age of twelve. His father, who ran the village grocery store, found his son's unusual interest difficult to explain to fellow villagers. The Archbishop was sounding alarm bells in the later part of his episcopate over the wayward and woke direction of his beloved church. His writings now seem prescient. His son, Andrew, was ordained here in St Peter's Cathedral. The book is now available from St Peter's Cathedral Office at $28.

Mass Setting: Missa Simplicior by John Merbecke

Introit standing

Be thou, my God and defender, and a place of refuge that thou mayest save me: for thou art my upholder, my refuge, and my Saviour; and for thy holy Name's sake be thou my leader and my sustainer. In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust; let me never be put to confusion: but rid me, and deliver me in thy righteousness. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Be thou my God and defender, and a place of refuge that thou mayest save me: for thou art my upholder, my refuge, and my Saviour; and for thy holy Name's sake be thou my leader, and my sustainer.

Gradual

Thou art the God that doeth wonders: and hast declared thy power among the people. Thou hast mightily delivered thy people: even the sons of Jacob and Joseph.

Tract sitting

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness. Come before his presence with a song: be ye sure that the Lord he is God. It is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves: we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Communion Sentence

They did eat and were well filled, for the Lord gave them their own desire: they were not disappointed of their lust.

Holy Communion

Every Christian who is baptized and a communicant in his or own congregation is welcome to receive Holy Communion. The Sacrament is now offered in both kinds, bread and wine. If you choose not to receive the wine, please fold your arms and remain at the rail to bear the words of administration. If the rail is full to the middle, please go as far to the left as possible before you kneel so that others will not have to walk over your legs.

Communion Hymn 468 Peace, perfect peace - Song 46

Motet during ablutions Geistliches Lied, Op. 30 - Johannes Brahms

Do not be sorrowful or regretful; Be calm, as God has ordained, and thus my will shall be content. What do you want to worry about from day to day? There is One who stands above all who gives you, too, what is yours. Only be steadfast in all you do, stand firm; what God has decided, that is and must be the best. Amen.

Annual Reports

The year 2022 has come to a close and we are faced with Annual Report time. Our Annual General Meeting is set for Sunday, March 12, 2023, following the 10:30 a.m. service. Please prepare your report now and submit it to the Cathedral Office as soon as possible.

Pre-Lent

Today is the third Sunday of the three Sundays of the Season of the Church Year called Pre-Lent. This is the season of the “Gesimas”, that is, Septuagesima, Sexagesima and Quinquagesima, the Sundays that are respectively seventy, sixty and fifty days before Easter (approximately). In this season, there is a sort of “sea change” as we begin to turn our thoughts away from joyous celebrations of the Christmas and Epiphany Seasons, with their focus on the birth and manifestation of Christ, and toward the penitential season of Lent, with its focus on our Lord’s Suffering and death.

Throughout Pre-Lent and Lent, the singing or saying of “Alleluia” is omitted during our church services. In Pre-Lent, the colour of the liturgical vestments and altar frontal changes from green to purple, giving us a visual cue that it is time to begin to prepare ourselves for Lent, the season of penitence and self-examination, but also the season of hope, as we look forward to the resurrection of Christ at Easter.

WAR AND EARTHQUAKE

The Envelopes in the bulletin this week are an opportunity for you to help those in immediate need around the world through the Primate’s World Relief and Development fund. This is directly giving from church to church to those on the ground. The war in the Ukraine is a year old at the end of this week. The war in Syria has gone on much longer. The Earthquake in Turkey and Syria is a recent cataclysm. The Primate’s Fund is one of many such opportunities to give and so turn our prayers into action. <https://pwrdf.org/>.
