Calling all singers,

Come and join our congenial choir for this new season of music making! Our repertoire includes everything from Gregorian chant to the music of Messiaen and Fauré, and especially the English Cathedral tradition. Rehearsals are each Wednesday evening and we sing each Sunday morning as well as monthly Evensongs. Come and have some fun singing some glorious music in a beautiful setting. An audition to see how the voice lies is all that is required. Let me know please.

Rev Clement Carelse

Calling all children 7 years old and up, and parents and guardians! We are embarking on setting up a Children's Choir here at St Peter's Cathedral, and would like to begin rehearsals the beginning of October. Rehearsals will be on Wednesday afternoons at 4pm. The choir, called the "Treble Line" will sing Evensong once a month on Wednesday, and also once a month with the adults on Sundays. As the group gets more confident we will increase those performance days, hopefully singing at the Advent Lessons and Carols on Advent Sunday. The audition is just to see how the voice lies. Come and have fun singing in a beautiful and safe environment.

“We acknowledge that the land on which we gather is the traditional land of the Abegweit Mi’kmaq First Nation.”

OCTOBER 9th ST DENYS OF FRANCE. According to tradition he was the first bishop of Paris and was martyred for his faith by decapitation under the persecution of the Emperor Decius shortly after AD 250. Tradition claims that the decapitated bishop picked up his head and walked several miles while preaching a sermon on repentance.

OCTOBER 10th PAULINUS, Archbishop (died 10 October 644) was a Roman missionary and the first Bishop of York. A member of the Gregorian mission sent in 601 by Pope Gregory I to Christianize the Anglo-Saxons from their native Anglo-Saxon paganism, Paulinus arrived in England in 604 with the second missionary group. Little is known of Paulinus' activities in the following two decades.

OCTOBER 11th PHILIP OF CAESAREA, appears several times in the Acts of the Apostles. He was one of the Seven chosen to care for the poor of the Christian community in Jerusalem (Acts 6). He preached and performed miracles in Samaria, and met and baptized an Ethiopian man, a eunuch, in Gaza, traditionally marking the start of the Ethiopian Church (Acts 8). Later, he lived in Caesarea Maritima with his four daughters who prophesied, where he was visited by Paul the Apostle (Acts 21).

OCTOBER 13th EDWARD THE CONFESSOR was born in 1003. He was the last Saxon king to rule (for more than a few months) in England. He is called "Edward the Confessor" to distinguish him from another king of England, Edward the Martyr (c 962-979), who was assassinated (presumably by someone who wished to place Edward's younger half-brother on the throne), and who came to be regarded as a martyr for the faith. In Christian biographies, the term "confessor" is often used to denote someone who has borne witness to the faith by his life, but who did not die as a martyr.

He died on 5 January 1066, leaving no offspring; and after his death, the throne was claimed by his wife's brother, Harold the Saxon, and by William, Duke of Normandy. William defeated and slew Harold at the Battle of Hastings (14 October 1066), and thereafter the kings and upper classes of England were Norman-French rather than Anglo-Saxon. Edward is remembered, not on the day of his death, but on the anniversary of the moving ("translation") of his corpse to a new tomb, a date which is also the anniversary of the eve of the Battle of Hastings, the end of Saxon England.
