Communion Hymn
Soul of My Saviour - Anima Christi

1. Soul of my Saviour, sanctify my breast;
Body of Christ, be thou my saving guest;
Blood of my Saviour, bathe me in thy tide;
Wash me with water flowing from thy side.
2. Strength and protection may thy Passion be;
O Blessed Jesu, hear and answer me;
Deep in thy wounds, Lord, hide and shelter me;
So shall I never, never part from thee.
3. Guard and defend me from the foe malign,
In death's dread moments make me only thine;
Call me and bid me come to thee on high,
Where I may praise thee with thy saints for aye.

OCTOBER 25th CRISPIN AND CRISPINIAN, Martyrs who tradition says were born to a noble Roman family in the 3rd century AD, Crispin and Crispinian fled persecution for their faith, ending up at Soissons, France, where they preached Christianity to the Gauls while making shoes by night. It is stated that they were twin brothers. They earned enough by their trade to support themselves and also to aid the poor. Their success attracted the ire of Rictus Varus, governor of Belgic Gaul, who had them tortured and thrown into the river with millstones around their necks. Though they survived, they were beheaded by the emperor c.286. The St Crispin's Day speech is a part of William Shakespeare's history play Henry V. On the eve of the Battle of Agincourt, which fell on Saint Crispin's Day, Henry V urges his men, who were vastly outnumbered by the French, to imagine the glory that will be theirs if they are victorious. "Crispin Crispian shall ne'er go by, From this day to the ending of the world, But we in it shall be remembered-We few, we happy few, we band of brothers; For he to-day that sheds his blood with me, Shall be my brother."

OCTOBER 26th CEDD was an Anglo-Saxon Abbot of Lastingham and Bishop of East Saxons. He was an evangelist of the Middle Angles and East Saxons in England, and a significant participant in the Synod of Whitby, a meeting which resolved important differences within the Church in England, including the annual dating of Easter.

OCTOBER 28 th SIMON AND JUDE are two of the least known Apostles. The Gospel names St Simon as the tenth apostle, just before Jude. When the Eleven dispersed from Jerusalem to proclaim the Kingdom of God in other lands, tradition says that Jude departed from Galilee and Samaria to go into Syria, Armenia and ancient Persia where he met Simon, and their missionary partnership won tens of thousands for Christ. As always, the Gospel earned for itself both followers and enemies: for the two Apostles, the hour of supreme witness eventually arrived. Arrested and taken to the Temple of the Sun, the sentence imposed on both was to worship the goddess Diana, and so to deny Christ. In refusing, it is said that Jude declared pagan idols false, and that at the same time two horrible demons came out of the temple, destroying the idols. Frightened, the people watching the scene are said to have pounced ferociously on the two Apostles, who were brutally killed.
