Calling all singers,

Come and join our congenial choir for this new season of music making! Our repertoire includes everything from Gregorian chant to the music of Messiaen and Fauré, and especially the English Cathedral tradition. Rehearsals are each Wednesday evening and we sing each Sunday morning as well as monthly Evensongs. Come and have some fun singing some glorious music in a beautiful setting. An audition to see how the voice lies is all that is required. Let me know please.

Calling all children 7 years old and up, and parents and guardians!

We are embarking on setting up a Children's Choir here at St Peter's Cathedral, and would like to begin rehearsals the beginning of October. Rehearsals will be on Wednesday afternoons at 4pm. The choir, called the "Treble Line" will sing Evensong once a month on Wednesday, and also once a month with the adults on Sundays. As the group gets more confident we will increase those performance days, hopefully singing at the Advent Lessons and Carols on Advent Sunday. The audition is just to see how the voice lies. Come and have fun singing in a beautiful and safe environment.

Every Christian who is baptized and a communicant in his or own congregation is welcome to receive Holy Communion. The Sacrament is now offered in both kinds, bread and wine. If you choose not to receive the wine, please fold your arms and remain at the rail to hear the words of administration. If the rail is full to the middle, please go as far to the left as possible before you kneel so that others will not have to walk over your legs.

Anthem - And I Saw a New Heaven - Edgar L Bainton

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: For the first heaven and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea. And I, John, Saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, And there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away.

Special Prayer Time at Friday Evensong

An invitation to all our Parish Family: if you, or a loved one, are experiencing a difficult time, one that is weighing "heavily on your heart", one that may be health related or a life challenge or some great burden, please know that you can bring personal prayer requests to our Friday Evensong service where they will be upheld in formal petition to God's keeping. Requests are simply made in person at the gathering time we share before the service.

The Diocesan Church Society of PEI (DCS) has been tasked with finding a PEI Lay Representative to serve on Diocesan Council. "Currently Diocesan Council meets on Zoom for all meetings except two. One in the late spring (June this year) and the Nov/Dec meeting as that is the budget meeting. This year the meeting is Nov 24 and 25, Friday evening and Saturday. Zoom meetings are one evening." For more information, please contact Father Garrett.

CONFIRMATION is the affirmation by the Church and by each individual of his or her Baptism. It is an opportunity for grace for each person baptized and for their mature response. If you are interested in exploring this, or know of someone who is, please contact the Rector.

CHARLES SIMEON of Cambridge, Pastor (24 September 1759 – 13 November 1836) was an English evangelical priest. Simeon received the living of Holy Trinity Church, Cambridge, in 1783. Simeon gained influence among the undergraduates of the university. He became a leader among evangelical churchmen, and was one of the founders of the Church Missionary Society in 1799. He also acted as adviser to the British East India Company in the choice of chaplains for India. According to the historian Thomas Macaulay, Simeon's "authority and influence ... extended from Cambridge to the most remote corners of England and her Empire ... his real sway in the Church was far greater than that of any primate."

HUGH, Bishop of Lincoln was born into a noble family at Avalon in France. He became a canon regular at Villard-Benoit near Grenoble. About 1160 he joined the Carthusians, the strictest contemplative order of the Church, at their major house, the Grande Chartreuse. With great reluctance, he accepted the invitation of King Henry the Second to come to England as prior of a new Carthusian foundation at Witham, Somerset. With equal reluctance, Hugh accepted King Henry's appointment to the See of Lincoln in 1186. As a bishop, his humility and tact, his total lack of self-regard, and his cheerful disposition made it difficult to oppose him in matters of Christian principle. His people loved him for his constant championship of the poor, the oppressed, and outcasts, especially lepers and Jews. He firmly refused to raise money for King Richard's foreign wars. Yet Richard said of him, "If all bishops were like my Lord of Lincoln, not a prince among us could lift his head against them."

MARGARET Queen of Scotland c. 1045 – 16 November 1093), was an English princess and a Scottish queen. Born in the Kingdom of Hungary Margaret was a very pious Christian, and among many charitable works she established a ferry across the Firth of Forth in Scotland for pilgrims travelling to St Andrews in Fife.

HILDA, Abbess of Whitby (c. 614 – 680) was a saint of the early Church in Britain. She was the founder and first abbess of the monastery at Whitby which was chosen as the venue for the Synod of Whitby in 664. An important figure in the Christianization of Anglo-Saxon England, she was a Mitred Abbess in several convents, including the double Abbey of Whitby, for both monks and nuns, and recognized for the wisdom that drew kings to her for advice. The prestige of Whitby is reflected in the fact that King Oswiu of Northumberland chose Hilda's monastery as the venue for the Synod of Whitby, the first synod of the Church in his kingdom. He invited churchmen from as far away as Wessex to attend the synod. Most of those present, including Hilda, accepted the King's decision to adopt the method of calculating Easter currently used in Rome, establishing Roman practice as the norm in Northumbria.
