THANK YOU to those who have made the gardens around the Cathedral and the Rectory so beautiful this summer.

AUGUST 7th THE NAME OF JESUS. This day calls us to remember the purpose of Christ's coming, and its significance for us is found in his name Jesus, Saviour, the one come to save, heal and raise up, in knowledge and love.

AUGUST 10th LAURENCE, ARCHDEACON AND MARTYR (Latin: Laurentius, lit. "laurelled"; c.225-258) was one of the seven deacons of ancient Rome under Pope Sixtus II that were martyred during the persecution of Emperor Valerian in 258.

A well-known legend has persisted from earliest times. As Archdeacon in Rome, St. Laurence was charged with the responsibility for the material goods of the Church and the distribution of alms to the poor. When the prefect of Rome demanded that St Laurence turn over the riches of the Church, St Laurence asked for three days to gather together the wealth of the Church. He worked swiftly to distribute as much Church property to the poor as possible, so as to prevent its being seized by the prefect. On the third day, at the head of a small delegation, he presented himself to the prefect, and when ordered to give up the treasures of the Church he presented the poor, the crippled, the blind and the suffering, and said these were the true treasures of the Church. One account records him declaring to the prefect, "The Church is truly rich, far richer than your emperor." The prefect was so angry that he had a gridiron prepared, with coals beneath it, and had Laurence's body placed on it (hence St Laurence's association with the gridiron). After the martyr had suffered the pain for a long time, the legend concludes, he made his famous cheerful remark, "I'm well done. Turn me over!" From this derives his patronage of cooks and chefs.
