Communion Hymn 175 The Eternal Gifts Aeterna Christi Munera

Motet Faire is the Heaven William H. Harris

Faire is the heaven where happy soules have place In full enjoyment of felecitie; Whence they do still behold the glorious face Of the Divine, Eternall Majestie; Yet farre more faire be those bright Cherubins Which all with golden wings are oversight. And those eternal burning Seraphins Which from their faces dart out fiery light; Yet fairer than they both and much more bright Be the Angels and Archangels Which attend on God's owne person without rest or end. These then in faire each other farre excelling As to the Highest they approach more neare, Yet is that Highest farre beyond all telling Fairer than all the rest which there appear Through all their beauties joynd together were;
How then can mortal tongue hope to expresse The image of such endlesse perfectnesse?

Cruise Ship Tours 2025

This past week we hosted the final cruise ship tour of the season. Almost 700 visitors toured the Cathedral and Chapel as part of the hosted tours.

Thanks to tour hosts, Christine, Gaie, Gill, Patricia, and Moe. In addition to highlighting St. Peter's, the tours also generated over $5000 in revenue to support church operations.

The Chapel frequently appears as a highlight on self-guided walking tours, also attracting visitors to the site. All agree the Chapel is a treasure and worthy of its designation as a National Historic Site.

A documentary team also visited All Souls' Chapel this past week as part of the production of a documentary on Architect William Chritchlow Harris. The Chapel is widely regarded as the best collaboration between William and Robert Harris.

The Harris family were active members of St. Peter's after they immigrated to Prince Edward Island from England. Sometimes it takes the recognition of others to remind us of what we have.

The Chapel is open daily for your enjoyment so drop in for a few minutes of quiet reprieve from life's pressures. Evensong is held daily at 5:00 pm in the Chapel and there is a mid-week mass each Wednesday at 10:00 am.

Passchendaele

November 7th 2.00 p.m. St. Peter's Cathedral Hall

Dr. Philip Davis will speak about The Third Battle of Ypres also known as the Battle of Passchendaele a campaign of the First World War, fought by the Allies against the German Empire. The battle took place on the Western Front, from July to November 1917, for control of the ridges south and east of the Belgian city of Ypres. Passchendaele lies on the last ridge east of Ypres, 8 km from Roulers a railway junction on the main supply route of the German 4th Army.

The campaign ended in November, when the Canadian Corps captured Passchendaele, apart from local attacks in December and early in the new year.

Our speaker, Dr. Davis was educated at McMaster University in his hometown Hamilton Ontario and taught Religious Studies at UPEI for 35 years.

His grandfather fought at Passchendaele, hence his interest in the battle and in WW1.

Sponsored by Royal Commonwealth Society of Prince Edward Island. Everyone is welcome.

* Observance of All Souls

from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. The parable of the wedding garment has a cruel sound. How could the poor man, dragged in from the highway or the hedge to fill a place at the king's table, provide himself a wedding garment? The cruelty disappears if we turn from the parable to the thing signified in it. We are the men whom God's mercy has brought to his table, and the garment of glory is bestowed on us by his royal hand: 'Put ye on' says the scripture 'the Lord Jesus Christ'. We come here to keep our holy feast as members of Christ's body; in making us his members Christ spreads the garment of his own sanctity upon us. If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to receive us as though we were Christ himself.
