We will go into the house of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.

Amen. Rejoice ye with Jerusalem: and be ye glad for her, all ye that delight

Property News: Sacristy Improvements: Both rooms of the Sacristy have received much needed repair and painting. Numerous holes, cracks, areas of peeling paint, leak stains and wear and tear that accumulated over the decades have been repaired. The project was completed by Tony and required a lot of detail work. The result is a brighter and more welcoming work area for the Clergy, Servers, Altar Guild, Flower team, Visiting Clergy, and Morning prayer/Evensong leaders. Special thanks to the Binney Group for their financial support of this project.

Save The Date: On Friday, May 2 the parish is holding a good, old fashioned, potluck supper. We've not done one of these in years and they're always so much fun when we all come together to eat, chat and share a laugh and a story or two. Please mark this on your calendar. More details to follow but a hint that if you have an international recipe that would be awesome.

Special Thank You: A very special thank you to all the people who came to the "polishing party" on March 23rd. We had a wonderful afternoon of fellowship and polishing. The brass is gleaming in our beautiful Cathedral! Many hands made light the work!

Today we celebrate Mothering Sunday

Blessing of Flowers

Heavenly Father, your Son Jesus admired the lilies of the field and taught us to imitate them by trusting in your love. Bless ✠ these flowers, signs of your love in creation. Accept them as a sweet fragrance, fill the hearts of those who receive them with the memory of and thanks for our mothers and their care and nurture. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, People. Amen.

The Flowers will be distributed during the voluntary

Blessing of the Simnel Cake

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who didst feed the multitude of five thousand people long ago, with five loaves and two fish; we ask thee to nourish us spiritually, and to be the food of our souls. Bless ✠ this simnel cake, and grant that it may be for us a sign of thy love, which provides all our needs; through Jesus Christ, the Bread of Heaven. People. Amen.

The Simnel Cake may be distributed following the Eucharist

MOTHERING SUNDAY

Today the Scripture passages refer to the church as the New Jerusalem and the Mother of us all. The traditional Simnel Cake probably takes its name from the Latin word “siminellus”, meaning fine wheat four (a luxury item — poor folk ate barley bread). The cakes were rich and varied, highly glazed and very hard. Some were star shaped or decorated with pictures of Christ and His Mother. The Shrewsbury Simnel is the cake most commonly used nowadays; it is a rich fruit cake with a layer of almond paste baked into it and decorated with twelve balls of almond for the twelve Apostles. Flowers for mother are an old custom. Children picked spring flowers and took them to church to be blessed. Distribution of flowers is still customary in many Anglican churches when spring flowers are available, and many parishes serve Simnel Cake.

Did You Know? Have you ever been to a Stations of the Cross service? Have you ever wondered what the numbered plaques in both the church and chapel are for? Every Friday in Lent, in the chapel, after a short evensong, a simple but moving service is held. Everyone there turns to each plaque in order and a reading, a response and a prayer is said. The readings follow the vivid movement of Christ to his crucifixion. It is an extremely beautiful way to relive Christ's journey and one every Christian will want to experience. See bulletin for time details.

from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. Everything that is true of Christ's body is true of us in some manner. He gives us his body that we may become his body. Christ's body died on the cross, he also rose. The resurrection is ours, but the death also is ours. Many men, at the last challenge, have consented to be martyrs, and set their bodies aside. But Christ's passion was no more than the last expression of what he had done all his life. He had set his body aside whenever its demands conflicted with man's need or God's will, and so he had rehearsed his death continually; not morbidly, but with joy and self-forgetfulness. We have many opportunities so to rehearse our death, and how steadily we reject them! Our bed, our chair retains us when we should get up and pray; fleshly delights of act and imagination, some by no means innocent, hold us from following better inspirations. Our own pleasure comes before our neighbour's, vanity before sympathy. How will it be when rehearsals are over, and we have to act our part, to put our bodies finally off, that we may possess God? If Christ offers us up with his own death in this sacrament, it is that we may die a voluntary and daily death, and merit a daily resurrection.
