Give sentence with me, O God, and defend the cause of my soul against the ungodly people: deliver me, and rid me from the deceitful and wicked man; for thou, O Lord, art my God, and my strong salvation. O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling. A LIGHT LUNCH FOLLOWS WORSHIP AT 12.20 p.m. IN THE HALL

Did You Know? Have you ever been to a Stations of the Cross service? Have you ever wondered what the numbered plaques in both the church and chapel are for? Every Friday in Lent, in the chapel, after a short evensong, a simple but moving service is held. Everyone there turns to each plaque in order and a reading, a response and a prayer is said. The readings follow the vivid movement of Christ to his crucifixion. It is an extremely beautiful way to relive Christ's journey and one every Christian will want to experience. See bulletin for time details.

April 11: Leo the Great (c. 400 – 10 November 461), was Bishop of Rome from 29 September 440 until his death. He is the first of the three Popes listed with the title "the Great", alongside Popes Gregory I and Nicholas I.

Leo was a Roman aristocrat. He is perhaps best known for having met Attila the Hun in 452 and persuading him to turn back from his invasion of Italy. He is also a Doctor of the Church, most remembered theologically for issuing the Tome of Leo, a document which was a major foundation to the debates of the Council of Chalcedon, the fourth ecumenical council. That meeting dealt primarily with Christology and elucidated the definition of Christ's being as the union of two natures, divine and human, united in one person, "with neither confusion nor division".

from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. The body we receive in this sacrament is a body that died, and having died was buried. The body was done to death and laid in a tomb, to wait for a divine miracle. Christ lies in his sepulchre the image of Christian hope; nothing lies there but the bare hope of resurrection. Hope stretches between sacrifice and life renewed. Vision can often see no further than the sacrifice which God's commandments impose; it cannot descry the enrichment of life which God's grace intends. Hope holds the gap. 'Must I rule the appetite of sex within the law of Christ, must I persevere in practices of prayer which are dry and seemingly infertile? It is death to my spirits. What life will ever come of it for the Christian people or for me?' If this is death, I ought to embrace it for Christ's sake, and be willing not only to die, but to lie dead in sure and certain hope. Where the burial of Christ is, there the resurrection of Christ will be.
