God is in his holy habitation, it is he that maketh brethren to be of one mind in an house: he will give the dominion and pre-eminence unto his people. Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be: world without end. Amen. HOMEcoming SUNDAY 2025
SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 7th
8:00am & 10:30am

Dear Friends,

Welcome Home!

The annual St. Peter's Cathedral Homecoming Celebration is just ahead!

Please hold the morning of Sunday September 7th open on your calendar! This Sunday marks the return to our service starting at 10:30am.

Our services will begin at 8:00 am and 10:30 am.

Once again, our hope is that Homecoming Sunday will truly be the occasion for a gathering of every member of our St. Peter's Cathedral Parish Family. And we mean "every member"- past, present and future. We look forward to seeing each and every one of us gathered with our families, with friends, with new acquaintances or the neighbours we've always wanted to invite to our church.

It will be a day to gather with the whole parish family, meet old friends, discover new ones and learn their names. It's a day to catch up with dear people who mean so much to us. There will be our familiar St. Peter's worship service with great hymns, familiar musical settings, our growing choir in full voice, and most importantly, the gathering together at our Lord's Feast. There will be a photo taken of the entire parish family present that will be a visual living record of that family for years to come.

A light lunch will be served following the 10:30 service as we share a special time of fellowship and refreshments.

WE LOOK FORWARD SO MUCH TO SEEING YOU!

Your St. Peter's Cathedral Parish Life Committee
HOMEcoming SUNDAY 2025

WELCOME!

We extend a special welcome to those who are single, married, separated, divorced, widowed, gay, straight, well-heeled or down at the heels.

We especially welcome wailing babies and excited toddlers.

We welcome you whether you can sing like Pavarotti or quietly growl to yourself.

You're welcome if you are just browsing, just woken up or just out of prison.

We don't care if you're more Christian than the Archbishop of Canterbury or haven't been to church since Christmas ten years ago.

We extend a special welcome to those over sixty but not grown up yet, and to teenagers who are growing up too fast.

We welcome keep-fit mums and hockey dads, starving artists and tree huggers, latte-sippers, vegetarians, vegans or junk-food eaters.

We welcome those who are in recovery or still addicted.

We welcome you, if you are having problems, are down in the dumps, or hate organized religion.

We offer a welcome to those who believe the earth is flat or a sphere, work hard, don't work, can't spell or write papers for learned journals or because their granny is visiting and she wanted to come to church.

We welcome those who are inked, pierced or neither.

We offer a special welcome to those who can't pray here or anywhere, had religion shoved down their throats as kids or got lost and wound up here by mistake.

We welcome those who don't believe any of the above.

We welcome tourists, seekers, doubters and you.

from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. At one time the Christian priest used to stand on the further side of the table, as though setting forth Christ to the people; now he stands on this side, as leading the people in offering Christ to God. Both positions are right, and we do not know which to choose. For when Christ gave away the bread and the cup, he put his body and his blood at the entire disposal both of his Father and of his friends. Such is the sacrifice of Christ, and such is our sacrifice, for Christ joins us in his. What use will God make of us, what use can we be to one another? As we give ourselves away to God, we give ourselves away to our friends. Our adoration is owed to God, our prayer to mankind.
