The Sermon		Dr. Philip Davis
Offertory Sentence	standing
There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job: perfect and upright, and one that feared God. And Satan sought to tempt him: and power was given him by the Lord over his possessions, and over his flesh. And he destroyed all his substance and his sons: and he smote his flesh with sore boils.

FOOD BANK

Please mark November 16th on your calendars as our next Food Bank Sunday and remember to pick up your donation of pasta and/or pasta sauce. And for those of you who like to plan ahead, the item for December will be rice and, for January, it will be tuna. As always, many thanks for your support of the needy in our community.

HILLSBOROUGH HOSPITAL

Toiletries e.g. soap, toothpaste, are much appreciated.

All donations are always gratefully received for both the Food Bank and the Hospital in the baskets under the table at the back of the Cathedral.

Thank you for your generous support of the mission of Christ in and through St. Peter's.

The Musical setting for mass today is from the well loved Requiem by Gabriel Fauré. The music is very approachable and accessible to all who hear it, and has been used often at state funerals. Its function today serves as a reminder that as beloved children of One Heavenly Father, those commemorated, and those not remembered, but who also perished, all have a place in their Father's house, in Paradise despite human frailty and folly. Rest eternal grant unto them O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them.

Prayers

Almighty and eternal God, from whose love in Christ we cannot be parted, either by Death or life; hear our prayers and thanksgivings for all whom we remember this day; fulfil in them the purpose of thy love; and bring us all, with them, to thine eternal joy: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace do proceed: Kindle, we pray, in the hearts of all the true love of peace; and guide with your pure and peaceable wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth; that in tranquillity your kingdom may go forward, till the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, stretch forth your mighty arm to strengthen and protect the Armed Forces: grant that meeting danger with courage and all occasions with discipline and loyalty, they may truly serve the cause of justice and peace; to the honour of your holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

God of love, whose compassion never fails; we bring before you the griefs and perils of peoples and nations; the necessities of the homeless; the helplessness of the aged and weak; the sighings of the prisoners; the pains of the sick and injured; the sorrow of the bereaved. Comfort and relieve them, O merciful Father, according to their needs; for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. This sacrament is not a special part of our religion, it is just our religion, sacramentally enacted. It is whatever Christ is, and Christ is everything to Christian men. In particular, he is the supreme bond between us. Everyone of you communicating is bound to his neighbour by this, that the Christ who lives in one, lives in the other. You care for your fellow Christian as you would care for Christ, and that in you which does the caring is also Christ. Christ in each cares for Christ in all when we communicate together. The same bond unites us with the saints in paradise, who make up by far the greater part of Christ's people, and with our departed friends who may not yet be in paradise, but for whom we care, and for whom we pray.
