Communion Hymn - Draper

1. In our day of thanksgiving one psalm let us offer
For the Saints who before us have found their reward;
When the shadow of death fell upon them, we sorrowed,
But now we rejoice that they rest in the Lord.
2. In the morning of life, and at noon, and at even,
He call'd them away from our worship below;
But not till his love, at the font and the Altar,
Had girt them with grace for the way they should go.
3. These stones that have echoed their praises are holy,
And dear is the ground where their feet have once trod;
Yet here they confessed they were strangers and pilgrims,
And still they were seeking the city of God.
4. Sing praise, then, for all who here sought and here found him;
Whose journey is ended, whose perils are past;
They believe in the Light; and its glory is round them,
Where the clouds of earth's sorrows are lifted at last.
5. In the essence of Jesus the Saints are in glory,
Who have known him and loved him and served him below;
Their reward is with him to be happy for ever
And to follow the Lamb wheresoe'er he may go.
6. Blessed Saints, in the presence of Jesus for ever,
Be mindful of us who here struggle below;
Intercede for your brethren, who linger in exile,
That on them life eternal their God may bestow.
7. To the Father who made us be glory forever;
To the Son who redeemed us be honour and praise;
To the Spirit, whose sevenfold power makes us holy,
Let the earth its thanksgivings eternally raise.

Post Communion Hymn - Darwall's 148th

1. Thou art the Christ, O Lord,
The Son of God most high! Forever be adored
That Name in earth and sky,
In which, though mortal strength may fail,
The Saints of God at last prevail.
2. O surely he was blest
With blessedness unpriced,
Who, taught of God, confessed
The Godhead in the Christ!
For of thy Church, Lord, thou didst own
Thy saint a true foundation-stone.
3. Thrice fallen, thrice restored!
The bitter lesson learnt,
That heart for thee, O Lord,
With triple ardour burnt, The cross he took he laid not down
Until he grasped the martyr's crown.
4. O bright triumphant faith,
O courage void of fears!
O love most strong in death,
O penitential tears!
By these, Lord, keep us, lest we fall,
And make us go where thou shalt call from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. It has often seemed unreasonable that there should be more joy in heaven over one repentant sinner than over ninety-nine just men in need of no repentance, as though we gave most joy to the heart of God by often sinning and repenting often. But God has no joy in insincere repentances, and to repent sincerely is to repent, so far as we can make it, irrevocably. It is not for us to theorise repentance, but to repent; we at least are sinners, and we can give to the heart of God the joy he prizes so, for we can repent. Especially since the careful searching fingers are stretched from heaven to find the missing silver, and the love of God does not rest from seeking the lost sheep. How, in fact, was Jesus seen to be seeking the sinful publicans? He sat and ate with them. And he is seen to be seeking us, in that he has drawn us to share his table.

In birth our fellow man was he,
 Our meat while sitting at the board.
 He died our ransom to be,
 He ever lives our great reward.

A Message to our parishioners as of the end of June

Dear Parishioners,

As we pass by the first day of summer, and the halfway mark of our financial year, I'd like to provide a brief update on our financial status.

The bottom line is that we are well behind where we were last year at this time with a deficit at the end of May of $37, 400. That's an increase in deficit of $20,000 compared to this time last year. Envelope revenue received by May 31 was $36,315 compared to $55,644 last year, so this is the bulk of the shortfall. Overall expenses to date are actually slightly lower to date at $128,648. Contributions to Friends of St. Peter's were down $3000 to $12,010 at the end of May.

As you will recall, we have been balancing our books consistently for many years, with small deficits in last two. We can't afford to return to running deficits.

We have new chimney top on the Rectory in preparation for a badly-needed new roof to be completed this year. We do have the money set aside in our Building Fund for this, but the Building Fund can also always use your support.

So I would ask that everyone please check that your very important contributions to the Cathedral or Friends of St Peter's are up-to-date and keeping up with inflation where possible.

Thank you

Rory Francis
