The Lord is my light, and my salvation, whom then shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life, of whom shall I be afraid? when mine enemies pressed sore against me, they stumbled and fell. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost: As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be: world without end. Amen. Picnic Thanks: A Rescued Picnic! Well, the weather pushed us indoors after we had rescheduled the church picnic but that did nothing to dampen our spirits. Thanks so much to all the worker bees who helped to make the picnic a great success. There were plenty of kids there of all ages - special shout out to Hannah Ghiz, Lila Taweel and Marjorie Vessey for holding up the 90 plus age group! Huge thanks to chief flipper Sean and chief minion Moe. Special thanks to our Sextons Tony and Jose for all their help in the hall with the set up and clean up! Now, it's drinks on the front lawn for the summer. There were leftover ice cream sandwiches if anyone wants one this Sunday! Edie for your Parish Life Committee

Fundscrip: Fundscrip is now up and running! Purchase your gift cards from the office for e.g. Sobeys, Superstore, Shopper's, Esso etc. A percentage of every gift card purchase results in a cash return to the parish and a tax receipt to the purchaser. Welcome: The Canadian Renaissance Music Summer School will be held at St. Peter's from Friday August 1 – Sunday August 3rd. More than two dozen musicians from around the Maritimes and further afield, including some from our own Choir, will be taking part in the educational sessions focusing on music from the 1300 to the 1600's.

While CRMSS has had similar events in Ontario and British Columbia for several years, this is the first time being held in the Atlantic region.

The musicians will be utilizing several areas of the Cathedral property during this intense training session.

Participants will also be providing the musical aspects of the main service on Sunday August 3rd.

from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. The gift of the Holy Ghost closes the last gap between the life of God and ours. Our Father and Maker certainly underlies and sustains our existence at every point, and yet an impenetrable veil hides him from us. The veil has no thickness, and yet we cannot see through it; his life is his, and our life is ours. The Son of God steps through the veil, clothed in our nature; he becomes one of us, he takes his place beside us in this very sacrament. Nevertheless the more Jesus Christ is revealed as a man, the more distinct he is from us, for each of us is another man. But the Holy Ghost is given by the Father and the Son to be our very soul. When we allow the love of God to move in us, we can no longer distinguish ours and his; he becomes us, he lives us. It is the firstfruits of the Spirit, the beginning of our being made divine.
