Offertory Sentence standing

The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart:
sweeter also than honey, and the honeycomb;
moreover by them is thy servant taught.

Another New Roof: The Rectory roof was replaced this past week and looks great. This work, combined with the chimney replacement, marks the completion of our major maintenance project for this year. It adds to the significant investments made in the Rectory property in recent years. Thanks for your support, and to MacBeth Brothers Roofing for their expertise and prompt completion of the work. Of course, there are still numerous projects on our 'To Do List' reflecting the reality of five structures dating as far back as 1869.

Rector's Vacation: Fr. Garrett will be on vacation from the first full week of August until the first week in September. In case of emergency please call Fr. Stephen Petrie at 1-514-777-9076.

* Eve of St. Bartholomew

from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. When we exchange between us the words of the sursum corda, the lifting of our hearts to the Lord will be more than a pious aspiration, it will be a divine fact. The sacrament is the presence of Jesus Christ, and Jesus Christ is in heaven. He stoops to us in this Sacrament, as he does through his whole incarnation; but he stoops to lift us to himself. In a true mystery, not in edifying fancy, we are with him in that divine place. There is the whole Church of God; there are the saints who pray for us in their glory, and there by the power of hope are the souls, for whom we pray that they may speedily be joined with the saints. The saints, the souls departed and the Church on earth in every place are one life and one prayer through Christ their high priest. The effort, in mutual communion, of each spirit living or departed is requisite for the perfection of the Body of Christ. All are the support of each, and the whole hangs upon heaven in a point which is the Lord Jesus.
