ANNUAL PARISH POTLUCK SUPPER

THURSDAY APRIL 23RD AT 6:00 PM

Last year the Parish Life Committee revived an old tradition which had fallen by the wayside during Covid and held a parish potluck supper. Those who were there had a lovely time and the potluck miracle of just the right food happened. We are moving ahead with another one this year and would love to see you all there. The supper in the hall will be Thursday, April 23, starting at 6:00. Bring a dish to share, it doesn't have to be massive as there will be plenty to go around. (Please put your name on your dish so those with allergies can ask you regarding the ingredients.) And if you have a board game you like to play you can bring that along too! We'll put on the coffee and get out the paper plates. Come to eat but really, come to visit. See you there!

UPCOMING MEGA YARD SALE

SATURDAY, JUNE 13th

Please mark the date of Saturday, June 13th on your calendars for our next parish yard sale fundraiser. If you have items to contribute, please contact Ann Francis or the office and we'll arrange pick up if needed. The full week prior is reserved for sorting and pricing in the church hall, and there is room in our basement for storage until that date. Remember that old saying about 'trash' and 'treasure'! All donations of new or gently used and in good working order items gratefully accepted!

DAILY EVENSONG

What is Evensong?

Evensong is a short service of readings and prayers. It takes place in All Souls' Chapel at 5:00 p.m. every day unless there is a special evening service, and it lasts about 20 minutes.

What happens at Evensong?

Daily Evensong typically consists of two Scripture readings along with the recitations and prayers found on pages 20-24 of the Book of Common Prayer.

What doesn't happen at Evensong?

Daily Evensong does not include a sermon or a sacrament, and there is no music unless a particular worship leader provides it.

What is Evensong for?

Evensong combines parts of two medieval evening services, Vespers and Compline. At St Peter's Cathedral, Evensong provides an opportunity to close the day with prayer and contemplation in our beautiful and historic Chapel.

Who leads Evensong?

Evensong can be conducted either by clergy or by trained laypeople. At present, the following people usually conduct the Evensong services:

Monday: Aaron MacLure is a former religious studies student and long time faithful parishioner.

Tuesday: Al Tuck is a singer/songwriter and a touring and recording musician. He is descended from a branch of the same family as William Critchlow Harris and Robert Harris, the architect and artist who designed and decorated All Souls Chapel.

Wednesday: Kevin Garvey is a sub-deacon at the Cathedral, a horticulturalist and a father.

Thursday: Beth Dowbiggin is an altar server and a professional dog trainer.

Friday: Rev. Clem Carelse is an ordained deacon, and the organist/choir director for the Cathedral.

Saturday: Vincent Salabarría is the Cathedral sacristan, and a doctoral student in clinical psychology at UPEI.
