Dear Parishioners,

The Parochial Search Committee (elected February 8th) appreciates the role entrusted to us to carry out the important process of selecting a new Rector to lead our parish's Christian journey.

As a first step the Committee must prepare a Parish Profile with input from the congregation. This will guide our process in advertising and interviewing candidates for Rector. The Parish Profile also serves as an essential guide for potential candidates, so each can fully understand our priorities for the new Rector's service to the parish.

This is also an opportunity for reflection upon the role of St. Peter's, and the life, work, and service of our parish.

An email has been sent to each Parishioner asking you to complete this short (one page) online survey before March 2.

If you would prefer not to complete the survey online, paper copies of the survey are available at the back of the Cathedral. Please fold your completed written questionnaire and place it in the Donation Box at the back of the Cathedral, or in the Offering Plate.

You can answer any or all of the nine questions. This is an anonymous survey. If you wish to identify yourself, just put your name in the last question response space.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Committee Chair Rory Francis at ror@pcibioalliance.com.

Yours in faith,

The Parochial Search Committee

from The Crown of the Year by Austin Farrer, weekly paragraphs on the Holy Sacrament. What parent could take the children's food and throw it to the dogs? For the hunger of children is simple and obsessing. When they are hungry there is nothing that they want but food, and until their hunger is relieved, they have no mind for anything else. Their present mind is their hunger; they are their hunger. How happy are parents in the ability to bestow contentment so simply and so fully, as by giving the children the children's bread. And now in the name of the divine Father I must take bread, say grace for it, and distribute it. But when it comes to distribution, I shall find myself in the children's part; we shall receive together, as though from those merciful hands. The mercy of heaven rejoices to satisfy the children's hunger with the children's bread. Their hunger is for this, and this is what satisfies. What happiness, therefore, to the giver. And the children are happy if they hunger for this bread, if their hunger possesses them, until their hunger is their mind. Blessed are they, says Christ, that hunger and thirst, for they shall be filled. And Christ is best able so to say, being himself the bread.
