Did You Know? Have you ever been to a Stations of the Cross service? Have you ever wondered what the numbered plaques in both the church and chapel are for? Every Friday in Lent, in the cathedral, a simple but moving service is held. Everyone there turns to each plaque in order and a reading, a response and a prayer is said. The readings follow the vivid movement of Christ to his crucifixion. It is an extremely beautiful way to relive Christ's journey and one every Christian should want to experience. See bulletin for time details.

Gently Used Children's Books: The Parish Life Committee would like to ask our parishioners for donations of books suitable for young children to be used in the nursery under the supervision of our child care worker. The age range is anywhere from 0 to 5 years. Donations could be taken to the nursery or to the church office.

Thank You: Thank you to Binney for funding the "Thank you for visiting" and the donation support signs installed in the Cathedral and Chapel. Signs support both the new electronic debit system and traditional donation boxes.
