This sanctuary of my soul Unwitting I keep white and whole,

Call thou early, call thou late, To thy great service, dedicate.

These lines form the concluding stanzas of a poem in which Charles Sorley remembers the joys of carefree childhood and displays a more mature relationship with God. Like so many of his generation he was killed in battle in France in1915. He was 20.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them. We will remember them.

Prayers

Almighty and eternal God, from whose love in Christ we cannot be parted, either by Death or life; hear our prayers and thanksgivings for all whom we remember this day; fulfil in them the purpose of thy love; and bring us all, with them, to thine eternal joy: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace do proceed: Kindle, we pray, in the hearts of all the true love of peace; and guide with your pure and peaceable wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth; that in tranquillity your kingdom may go forward, till the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, stretch forth your mighty arm to strengthen and protect the Armed Forces: grant that meeting danger with courage and all occasions with discipline and loyalty, they may truly serve the cause of justice and peace; to the honour of your holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

God of love, whose compassion never fails; we bring before you the griefs and perils of peoples and nations; the necessities of the homeless; the helplessness of the aged and weak; the sighings of the prisoners; the pains of the sick and injured; the sorrow of the bereaved. Comfort and relieve them, O merciful Father, according to their needs; for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Parish Financial Update

Dear Parishioners,
Vestry has asked that we provide a financial update to parishioners as we near the end of 2026. Thanks to all for your vital and continuing contributions to the work of St. Peter's Cathedral.
As of November 1, envelope offerings for general expenses were $89,654, up from $79,321 last year. This is against a budget amount of $126,940 for that date. Friends of St. Peter's offerings dropped rather dramatically from $40,426 last year to $10,332. These are two of the more important revenue lines. Together, they show a decline from $119,747 to $96,986, a drop of over $22,000 year to date.
Hall rental income is down from $16,030 to $9,365 as provincial government departments cut back on external meetings.
On the expenditure side, our heating costs increased by about $3000 as of Nov 1, about an 8% increase. November and December will be higher as our heating costs at the Rectory (furnace oil) and the district heating system that heats the Cathedral, Hall, and Church House will both reflect the very high current price of fuel oil.
The building fund has received donations of $64,020, with $40,000 of that a very generous bequest from the estate of Carole Ann Michael. Capital expenditures to date were $21,589, which included costs of the new Cathedral front door, extensive interior repairs and painting of the Rectory in preparation for our new Rector Fr Colin and his wife Shannon, and a new sound board for the Cathedral and improved livestreaming of services.
Overall, good control of costs, but a serious decline in revenue. We currently stand at a net deficit of about $75,000. Last year we made up a great deal of ground in the last two months and balanced our books. We ask parishioners to do what they can again this year to close the gap and keep the Cathedral on a solid financial footing. That would be a wonderful way to welcome our new Rector and open a new chapter in the life of St. Peter's.
Thank you all,

Rory Francis
